NOTES.

Send your name to John Bell Gibson, Stanford, one week before the convention that homes may be assigned to all. Publish this programme in your county paper.

All railroads in Kentucky will carry delegates and visitors at one fare going and fare returning. When you purchase your ticket take the agent's receipt. We will get still lower rates on some roads if possible, and announce them in the Guide. Signed,
THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
ALEX. C. HOPKINS, Evangelist.

—With only one House democratic, the legislature this year has made the lowest tax-rate known since 1855. Democracy means low taxes both State and National.—N. Y. World.

—Should Bradley's man secure the republican nomination for governor, the followers of Denny and Boyle will cut Wood and say nothing at the August election.—Louisville Times.

—The new constitution will, if adopted, prohibit a mine owner from owning an interest in a railroad which runs to his mine; and prohibit a railroad holding an interest in a mine the products of which it hauls to a market.—Covington Commonwealth.

—The N. Y. World says that the billion means $15.87 tax for every man woman and child in the country. The man with a wife and five children must "pony up" $111.09 for his share of the extravagance. How do you like it, wage-earners?

Substitutes for alcoholic drinks in prohibition places are not meeting with success. Some of the most popular, though weak in alcohol, contain other properties much more deleterious, notably salicylic acid which is used to arrest fermentation. The acid is a kidney-destroyer. A scientist, who has analyzed several of the temperance drinks, such as "cured cider," says it is much safer to take whiskey.

DANVILLE.—Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court, will deliver the diplomas to the Centre College graduating class in June.—Rev. F. S. Pollitt, of Harrodsburg, will assist Rev. W. E. Arnold in conducting a revival at the Methodist church in this city, beginning Monday evening.—A. E. Hundley sold Wednesday to Nelson Rowland, of Lexington, a 3-year-old bay gelding, by Messenger Breeze, for $300.—Advocate.

A Wisconsin legislator is reported to have said: "I think every man should take his boys to saloons and teach them to use beer temperately." Why not at the same time teach these boys how to set fire to a wheat stack so that the flames will burn up the straw but leave the grain?—Chicago Standard.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The Springs here will not be formally opened until July 1, so those in authority say.

—The Vanderpool House, near the depot, which was yesterday granted license to retail liquors, opened up "business to-day." Mr. E. Smith is the man who handles the decanters and glasses.

—The Louisville Times says that the Kentucky State Guards will not encamp here this summer, but go to Mammoth Cave instead. This conclusion will bring a cloud to the eyes of many dashing Venuses, who were too utterly too too sanguine that they would enjoy the pleasure of flirting with the "boys in blue" at the Springs this year.

—A physician of this place, who has had a large, varied and lucrative practice for 25 years, says that preachers are, of all men whom he has waited on, most afraid of that grim persuader, death. We are unable to understand this, unless it is that preachers are so well acquainted with the penalties promised in Scripture, and so cognizant of their own shortcomings, that they fear to stand before the Jasper throne.

—Mrs. Allie Newland spent Sunday in Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Thurman, of Garrard, were the guests of relatives in this vicinity this week. Mr. H. B. Farris, the accommodating clerk of the Gilcher Hotel, Danville, was up to see his aged mother Friday. Mrs. Rev. M. H. Morgan, of Pineville, was summoned by telegraph to attend the bedside of her brother and arrived Friday night. Mr. John Anderson, "My Joe John," Garrard's handsome and popular superintendent of schools, and Mr. Charley Hayden, of Stanford, were here Sunday and—must we tell it?—caught on among the girls.

—Mr. Simon Gormley, who was deprived of the faculty of speech by paralysis a couple of years ago, and who last week suffered a second severe stroke, astonished his attendants Saturday night by turning over and talking freely for several minutes. His conversation, however, was of occurrences that happened before his first attack two years ago. He recognized his attendants and called them by name; but he seems to have lost all remembrance of what has occurred recently, and in which he himself was an actor, for until the last week he mixed and mingled in society like others with the exception that he communicated by means of a pocket slate instead of by speech. He is still in a precarious condition, however, but his relatives and friends are hopeful, in case of his recovery, that his speech will be restored. His case is a most peculiar one.

—A telegram from Branford, Fla., to Judge Arch Carson, of this place, conveys the sad intelligence that his son, Stuart M. Carson, was shot and killed there Friday morning by a negro, whom he was attempting to arrest. About five years ago young Carson, accompanied by Thomas Lasley, also a Crab Orchard boy, left here for Florida on the same mission that took old Ponce-de-Leon to that sunny land—a search for health. They both went to Branford, of which Lasley in time became mayor and in which capacity he was shot and killed a year ago by an obstreperous law-breaker, full particulars of which appeared in these columns at the time. Young Carson helped to bury his companion, little dreaming that an almost identical fate awaited him. When shot Mr. Carson was acting deputy sheriff of Suwanee county. As he was always prudent and unexcitable, his friends here can hardly understand how his slayer could be worked up to perpetrate so foul a crime. Stuart M. Carson was born and raised here and was well liked by all who knew him, his affability, generosity and straightforwardness winning him friends among all classes. His remains arrived Sunday night in charge of his brother, J. H. Carson, and J. S. Edmiston, with proper ceremonies were deposited in the family lot here. The sympathy of the entire community is with the judge and his family in their bereavement.

—The W. C. T. U. society held its 4th medal contest at the Baptist church Friday night, which wasn't exactly filled with an "overflowing audience" but with an audience that made up in culture and intelligence what it wanted in number. Miss Sallie Green, Miss Nellie Yantis and Mr. R. Lee Davis were pitched upon for judges, but begging to be excused from serving in that honorable capacity, Prof. Smith, Col. D. G. Slaughter and J. Peter Chandler were placed on the judges' dais in their stead. The following young ladies and gentlemen—Misses Mary Mundy, Grace Tudor, Caltha Fish, Pearl Collier, Henry Fish and Lottie Dillion and Masters Joe Newland and Henley Bastin—were then severally introduced by Dr. Beazley, as per programme, and acquitted themselves in commendable style, eliciting rounds of applause and numerous tokens of appreciation in the way of bouquets and wreaths of flowers. While the judges were balancing the merits of the contestants, Miss Mamie DeBorde and Allie Fish each recited with much feeling a temperance selection, which added new laurels to the brows of the young ladies, whose elocutionary efforts have been so well received on previous occasions. The medals, two in number, by the irrevocable decision of the august judges, were awarded to Misses Lottie Dillion and Henry Fish and Prof. Smith, in a few well-timed complimentary remarks, presented them to the young ladies amid the eclat of the satisfied on-lookers. The music for the entertainment was furnished by the Cornet band.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

—We are informed by an old bachelor that there is to be a fishing party in the near future to be composed of six widows, all of whom are beautiful and accomplished, and six old bachelors, two of whom are from Stanford. There is to be a magnificent dinner spread upon the bank of the river. He tells us that he wishes to marry off the remaining five; that he is not uneasy about himself. From the foregoing it is natural to suppose that their hooks will be baited with matrimonial bait and their corks or floats are only symbolical of the love makers words floating softly and gently on the balmy river breeze. We trust the party will meet with their desired expectation.

—Little Tommie Carson, who had an abscess opened near the hip joint, is getting along nicely. Miss Isabel Owsley, of Hubble, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Montgomery. Miss Maggie Buchanan is visiting her sister, Mrs. John A. Haldeman, of Louisville. Mrs. Emma Farris and Miss Alice Moore, a charming young lady, are visiting relatives in Louisville. Mr. J. W. Moore is night clerk for Dan McCollum, of Junction City. Miss Birdie Hardin is visiting her sister, Miss Alice, in Danville, who is in the mantuamaking business with Mrs. Kittie Farris. Mrs. Annie James has been trimming hats for Mrs. J. H. Stephens for several days past. Mr. Higgins Kennedy, one of C. O.'s promising young men, who went to Russellville several months ago, paid his old home a visit last week. Mr. John Carson went home with Mr. W. C. Ebert yesterday, to Louisville, to seek employment. We trust John will succeed. He is capable of doing well.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Instructs for Wood and Yerkes and Indorses Harrison.

Persuant to a call of the county chairman, Hon. G. M. Davison, the republicans of Lincoln county assembled in mass convention at the court-house in Stanford, Monday, May 11th, 1891. The meeting was called to order by the chairman of county committee, who stated the object of the meeting. G. M. Davison, on motion, was then elected permanent chairman and G. G. Wine secretary. On motion the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That we approve the call for a republican State convention at Lexington on the 20th of May.

2. That we cordially endorse the statesman-like administration of President Harrison.

3. That the following persons be and are hereby appointed delegates and alternates to said convention: G. M. Davison, delegate; J. A. Lytle, alternate; G. W. Gentry, delegate; Wm. Cummings, alternate; W. R. Dillion, delegate; Steve G. Dyer, alternate; Frank Cordier, delegate; John Ellis, alternate; Charles Butcher, delegate; Harrison Stuart, alternate; John Edmiston, delegate; Joe Riffe, alternate; Jesse Thompson, delegate; F. W. Dillion, delegate; J. C. King, alternate; W. Reid, delegate; Ben Owsley, alternate; A. C. Carman, delegate; Wick Dillion, alternate; Harrison Graham, delegate; M. S. Bastin, alternate; R. Lee Davis, delegate; J. S. Young, alternate.

4. That said delegates or such alternates as may be present in the room instead of their principals are hereby instructed to cast the vote of Lincoln county for Hon. A. T. Wood for governor and for Hon. John W. Yeates for member of the Republican State Central Committee for the 8th Congressional district of Kentucky. Said delegates are also instructed to vote as a unit on all nominations and questions that may come before the State or district convention.

The county committee was then selected as follows: Stanford, G. M. Davison, G. W. Gentry; Turnersville, W. R. Davison; Hustonville, S. G. Dyer; Walnut Flat, J. C. King; Crab Orchard, F. W. Dillion; Highland, J. S. Young; Kingsville, Steve Blankenship; Hubble, Sidney Dunbar; Waynesburg, M. T. Reynolds.

It was then resolved that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, Mountain Echo and Lexington Leader for publication. On motion the meeting then adjourned.

G. M. DAVISON, Ch'n.

G. G. WINE, Sec'y.

—Old Adam Renaker, late a member of the legislature from Harrison county, who gained some notoriety from having carried a large Federal flag during Cleveland's first campaign, and was seen with it at almost every democratic barbecue during the canvass, and also carried it to the inauguration of Cleveland in 1885, was brutally beaten up by his son the other day. The old man says he did it without cause. The young man claims that his father came to his house drunk and insulted his wife.

LONDON LAUREL COUNTY

—The fishing parties mentioned in my last letter have all returned and report a pleasant time all but the cold weather.

—The result of Elder Livingston's protracted meeting here this week was seven additions. They were baptized in J. T. Brown's pond Sunday.

—The pupils of the dancing school will give a hop on the 20th. A printed card to that effect is out and a large crowd will probably be here from other points.

—The work of grading the new fair ground track is progressing rapidly and some valuable racing and trotting purses sufficient to insure the attendance of some good horses will be offered this fall.

—A lantern belonging to Dr. Ramsey, an overcoat hung on a fence on Main street by George Wren and flowers set in a bed in front of A. P. Moore's residence were all stolen last week after dark, which is something unusual in our temperate and religious village.

—Robert Asher, a farmer living four miles from here, had a mare to drop twin colts Monday, one being a horse colt and the other a mule colt. Both colts are lively and considered a great curiosity by everybody in this section. Dozens of people have been to see them.

—Judge Alcorn, of Stanford, was here last week and says Dick Warren is sure to get there. I hope his judgment in this is as good as in other things. Mr. Andy Rice, of Lincoln, is in London on business. H. C. Eversole is at Winchester attending the trial of the parties connected with the famous French-Eversole feud. Miss Amanda Mason returned Saturday from Somerset, where she has been visiting her brother. Mrs. J. T. Williams is in Somerset visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Litton. Mrs. Sallie Craft and son, Walton, accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Pitman, to Paint Lick. Gilbert Garrard was here from Manchester Monday. Judge Boyd and Col. Clark were on our streets Sunday, having just returned from Jackson circuit court. J. A. Craft is in from Louisville.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Only one marriage license has been issued here in the last five weeks.

—N. R. Wedding, a young Ohio county farmer of 30 years, eloped with Mrs. V. B. Morgan, the 65-year-old wife of a well-to-do farmer.

—George Nicholson, a farmer near Milan, Ind., after three months' experience, decided marriage a failure and committed suicide.

—A Chicago paper boasts that there are on an average 75 marriages a day there. The number of divorces is not given, but they probably exceed that number.

—Wedding guests waited in vain at Eighty-Eight, in Barren county, for the coming of William Hamilton and Mr. Bale, his best man. The two young men were thrown from a buggy while going to the bride's home and both were badly hurt. Hamilton may die.

—A couple at Springfield, O., celebrated their golden wedding Friday, when they surprised their guests by exhibiting a piece of their wedding cake, made in 1841. It was wrapped in the same paper it was 50 years ago and the guests who were allowed to test a wee particle of the historical trophy claim it retains a delicious flavor.

—A freak wedding occurred in a museum the other day. Prof. Hedley, the euphonium player, 6 feet one, married the little lady, 32 inches high. The gentleman who gave the bride away was M. Hubert, the man without arms, who signed the marriage certificate, as a witness, with the pen between his teeth. The bride maids were, "Nina," the American giantess, weighing 600 pounds, and "Satanella," the fire queen. The best man was Capt. Dallas, 7 feet 10 inches in height, and Gen. Metlene, 29½ inches in height, all connected with the show.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—David Anderson, a former citizen of this county, but who has lived in Laurel for the past three years, died at his home near London, Sunday, of pneumonia.

—Miss Ethel, the bright young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Carson, died at her home near Hustonville, Sunday night, after a protracted spell of pneumonia. Her remains were interred in the Hustonville cemetery yesterday.

—George, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bright, of the Hubble vicinity, died Friday of a brain trouble. Funeral services were held at the residence Saturday by Rev. T. J. Godbey, after which the body was taken to the Danville cemetery for interment.

The financial exhibit of the government is indeed a startling one. The change in two years from a surplus of nearly sixty million to a bankrupt treasury, with a forced loan of over fifty millions expended, presents a fearful condition for the country to face, and it will profoundly impress considerate people of all parties as to the criminal profligacy of the Billion Congress.—Philadelphia Times.

County.

Judge.....W. E. Varnon
Representative.....D. B. Edmiston

We have nothing new to tell about the various races for State offices, which will begin to be settled to-morrow. There is so much doubt in all the contests that the convention is likely to be the largest and hold on the longest of any ever known in the State. Every candidate professes confidence and their friends appear even more confident that their favorites will win. Well posted people think that the final vote in the governor's race will come between Brown and Clay, with the chances in favor of the former, but in all calculations you would do well not to figure Hardin out of the race. The other contests remain about the same as before stated, except that Mr. Warren's chances for auditor seem improved. Maj. Norman continues to whistle to keep his courage up, but his actions show that he is scared and geared badly. A combination against him is suggested, but we are not aware that any of the other three candidates sanction that method of retiring him, though it could be easily done.

The theory of heredity seems to be fully demonstrated in the case of Charles Ford, who was hung at Ottawa, Ill., Friday, for murdering a man whom his wife enticed for him to a lonely place for the purpose of robbery and for which she was given 14 years. Ford was born in the slums of New York. His father was hung for murder and his mother was driven out of the city for keeping a thieves' paradise. Two of his sisters keep notorious houses in Toronto, one of his uncles is doing time in Sing Sing for train wrecking and so on. Ford himself served two terms in a reform school and one in the Indiana penitentiary.

This prediction is printed in the Louisville Times. The name of the prophet is not given, but we hope, in several particulars, notably as to Gen. Castelman, a democratic president, &c., he will prove to be of honor, even in his own country. Four years from next Wednesday the candidate for governor will be Gen. J. B. Castelman, James P. Bryan, Bennett H. Young, and the incumbent will be for the former. A democratic president will occupy the White House and the farmers' alliance will be numbered with the dead grange and greenback parties.

Bro. Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, is a political prophet, so far as governors are concerned, of great accuracy. He says: "The News was the first paper in the State to name J. Proctor Knott for governor, the first to name Simon Bolivar Buckner and the first to name John Young Brown. On Mr. Brown's ability to get there our reputation as a prophet rests and if he is not nominated we will quit naming governors in Kentucky." At this writing it does not look like Bro. Sommers will have to quit prophesying.

A SYRIAN with an unpronounceable name, living in Damascus, has dissected the stomach of a silk worm and claims that he has found the combination by which he can make silk direct from mulberry leaves without fooling with the little worms. He has accordingly sent his nephew to this country for the purpose of starting a factory, which will probably be located in Georgia.

The prohibitionists hold their State convention in Louisville next week. The reason for following so closely on the heels of the democratic pow-wow doubtless grows out of the fact that the members want to be delivered from temptation. They expect that the democrats will drink all the liquor this week and leave them no chance to look on the wine while it is red.

Of the 14,000 convicts confined in the penitentiaries of the country, only 1,800 are women. The number of the former would be doubled if all who deserved them were wearing striped clothes, while the women might be turned out without seriously disturbing the country. There are really very few women mean enough to be in the penitentiary.

The government is so hard pressed for money to meet the demands on its depleted treasury that it is actually levying a duty on honey bees. In order to do so, however, a decision had to be rendered to the effect that the busy little workers are animals.

The editor of the Covington Commonwealth is a sanguine soul. Hear him: The nomination of John Young Brown is a political certainty. He will enter the convention with a compact following and a career unstained in the service of democracy.

The Insurance Herald, of Louisville, the excellent monthly edited by Mr. Young E. Allison, blossomed forth last issue into a weekly, thereby demonstrating that it is both a popular and a paying institution.

It must take a man of supremely keen perception of the ridiculous to enjoy a hearty laugh at his own execution. Wm. Price seems to have been one of the very few of the sort. He was hung at Marshall, Mo., Friday, for rape on a girl, who afterwards committed suicide because she could not bear the disgrace she imagined had been brought on her, and yet with these horrible crimes damning his soul, the dispatches say that the last seen of his brutish features before the black cap shut them from view, they were convulsed in laughter. The joke was too much for him, however, and it wasn't long before he was where laughing is comparatively unknown, except by the head man of the concern, who keeps the fire going. An Alabama negro was also hanged the same day, but he failed to see the point of the joke.

This postmaster general has put the government to the expense of publishing a huge pamphlet, in which he advocates his pet scheme of postal savings banks. The country does not need such institutions nor does it care to read Mr. Wanamaker's arguments on the subject made at the people's expense. A truthful story of how he made his millions selling "cheap clodgings" would find many more interested readers than anything he can say about postal savings banks.

It now looks like Col. Bradley's favorite, A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, will have a walk-over for the republican nomination. The counties are instructing for him right and left and by the time they are through, the other entries will find themselves so far in the rear that they will pay forfeit and yield the prize without further struggle. When the man from Garrard sets his head he generally gets there with both feet.

The announcement in Sunday's Mid-desboro News of the retirement of Col. Thos. H. Arnold from the editorial control of that paper will strike his friends with surprise and regret unless he finds a larger field in the State somewhere. He has sold his interest in the News to his partner, Mr. George H. Dains, who has demonstrated his ability to run it both creditably and profitably.

NEWSY NOTES.

—The Spring Garden National Bank, of Philadelphia, has been closed by the comptroller of the currency. The Penn Safe and Trust Deposit Company assigned, its interests being mingled with those of the bank.

—The repair shops, four locomotives, five cars loaded with oil, two with lumber, one baggage car and six passenger coaches, besides all the tools belonging to the workmen, were destroyed by fire, which completely gutted the railroad shops of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe, at Galveston, Texas.

—A white woman of Hull county, Georgia, is 114 years of age, has 12 children, 103 grand-children, 630 great-grandchildren, 372 great-great-grandchildren, in all 1,272. Her father lived to be 110 years old. She has been a member of the church for 102.

—The foot ball season in England for 1890-91 presents a gay record. Twenty-two players were killed, 80 were permanently maimed and there were broken legs, arms, collar bones, thighs, noses and dislocations, cuts, bruises and internal injuries too numerous to mention.

—Internal Revenue Commissioner Mason estimates that the amount of whisky manufactured in the United States during the present year will be 120,000,000 gallons, being 5,000,000 gallons more whisky than was ever produced in the United States in any year in its history.

—The beet sugar manufacturers of the California company, operating with eastern capital, have completed negotiations for the immediate erection at Marshalltown, Iowa, of the largest beet sugar plant in the West, with a capital of $550,000. The daily capacity will be 400 tons and it is to be ready for the fall crop.

—Last week the Etata, a privateer of the Chilean insurgents, steamed out of the harbor of San Diego, Cal., after having loaded itself with contraband goods and while in nominal charge of a U. S. Marshal. It landed him below the city and upon his report an American man-of-war was slowly prepared to pursue the privateer. Of course it didn't catch her.

—Last February, while returning home from Harrodsburg with his young bride, Cal. Vest was shot and killed by Jeff Holiday and his two brothers, Jim Matherly, a cousin of the murdered man, has been collecting evidence against the Holidays, but has all the time professed friendship for them. Thursday Matherly and a brother of Vest were together when they saw Jeff Holiday pass by. Matherly caught up with Holiday and offered him a drink. Holiday took the bottle, swallowed a good-sized drink and then went on, but soon feeling the effect of the poison went to a house near by and died in great agony. This is the 7th death caused by a divorce in the Holiday family.

—Reports of crop prospects along the line of the Great Northern Railroad are highly favorable.

—W. A. Hiatt and John L. Doty shipped 20 cows to Green & Embury, Cincinnati, for which they paid $30 per head. —Lancaster Record.

—Latest reports of the condition of the peach crop in the Delaware and Maryland peninsula are that the damage from the frost is very slight, the principal injury being to strawberries.

—J. H. Leonard sold 40 head of ewes and lambs last week to Ben Gabhart for $6 for the old sheep and lambs thrown in. Another sale was made at $7 a head, lambs included. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

—The Richmond Register says Squire Williams sold 10 Southdown yearling ewes at $10. Embury & Bowen shipped from Silver Creek 28 car-loads of cattle, which they had purchased for Lehman Bros., of Baltimore. Of this number a small quantity was for the Cincinnati market, 200 were for export and 250 billed for Jersey City, N. J. They cost $1 cts.

—Kingman won the Phoenix Stake at Lexington, Michael 2d, 11 miles in 1:53, which makes him a big favorite for the Derby to-morrow. Before his owner, Kinsead Stone could secure the $3,720 won in the race, an injunction was served on Gen. Robinson restraining him from paying it. The action is caused by Kingman not picking up a penalty in the Phoenix Hotel Stakes, when his owner claims that he won the rich Hyde Park Stakes at Chicago last July and is

ECONOMY

Steps in front of the prudent purchaser's pocket book and demands to know how much value for a dollar. In our store we can always answer: as elsewhere and a little more. Why? Because we buy in much larger quantities and therefore

CHEAPER THAN OTHERS,

Because also our immense business enables us to place our goods in the consumers' hands at lower proportionate expense; and lastly because we are content with a smaller per centage of profit, believing that a small profit on many sales is preferable to a large profit on few. We will mention a few items of paying qualities in Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Carpets, Matting, Hats, &c.: 500 pairs children's pants just opened at 25c. All Calicoes at 5c. Challies 4c a yard.

—The stakes of the Fair trots at Danville, says the Advocate, have closed with 101 entries; the largest number ever known in the history of the Danville fair. The Clay stakes, for yearlings, has 34 entries; the 2-year-olds 25; 3 year old, green horses, 26; 3 year old, eligible to 2:30 class, 11 and stakes for pacers 5. Some of the fastest trotting blood in the world is included in the large list and this year's trots will likely eclipse by far any previous efforts.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Hoffman, a young man of Burlington, C., states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found before he had used half of a dollar bottle that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any throat, lung or chest trouble try it. Trial bottle free at A. R. Penny's drug store.

A Fortunate Woman.

Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., has reason to be very thankful. She was a great sufferer from heart disease for years. Was short of breath, had uneasy spells, pain in side, fluttering, faintness, etc. After taking two bottles of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, she says, "I am better than for 20 years. My mind and eyesight have improved wonderfully. I advise all persons thus afflicted to use this great remedy." A. R. Penny, druggist, recommends this cure for all heart troubles. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, containing marvelous testimonials, free.

They All Failed.

The following letter from Mr. W. A. Thomson, of Columbus, Wis., is peculiarly interesting: "My wife," says he, "has been treated for her head, stomach and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two in Chicago, one in Philadelphia, one in Cincinnati, and at the large institute in Buffalo for six months. They all failed. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve helped her wonderfully." This should be used in all conditions, such as nervous changes of life, nervous disturbances, fits, rheumatism, etc. Ask at A. R. Penny's drug store for a free trial bottle and Dr. Miles' new book on the Nerve and Heart.

PERSONAL POINTS.

A. URBANSKY came up yesterday and helped the boys in the Louisville Store. Miss MATTIE KING, of Parksville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Sinkhorn. Our old scribes, R. Lee Davis and W. J. Edmiston, were in to see us yesterday.

MRS. JAMES MILBURN and Miss Nannie Walter went to Danville Friday to visit friends.

MR. T. S. ELKIN and wife, of Lancaster, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Elkin.

MRS. SUSAN SEARCENT has returned from a visit to her son, Dr. Andrew, at Hopkinsville.

MISS ANNE and GEORGE WRAY leave for Louisville to-day to attend the Musical Festival.

MR. AND MRS. TOM METCALF went to Pineville to spend some time with Judge C. W. Metcalf.

MRS. W. C. PRICE, son Herbert and Mrs. Sims and daughter, of Danville, have been visiting Mrs. J. E. Farris.

ABOUT 100 Lincoln county democrats, including the editor, will start to the convention to-day to work for Warren.

MR. T. C. JASPER, cashier of the Plano (Texas) National Bank, was here yesterday shaking hands with his many friends.

REV. W. A. GIBSON, of Lexington, who is engaged in raising a fund for the Christian Orphan Asylum, was with his brother, Rev. John Bell Gibson, a few days.

MESSRS. T. J. HAMMOND and A. H. Rice, of Garrard, representing the Walter A. Wood and McCormick Machine Co., respectively, were here yesterday.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY was here yesterday and as usual in fine spirits. He's got everything his own way and there's nothing to hinder him from being light-hearted and happy.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE H. BRUCE are disposing of their household goods, preparatory to leaving Stanford, which we regret to say they have determined to do in the near future.

MR. C. C. CAISON started Sunday afternoon to drive through to Louisville, so that he and his brother, J. T., can have the use of their nice horse and phaeton in the city for a few weeks.

PRESIDENT ED ALCOCK and Cashier J. W. Hocker were here yesterday, apparently very proud of their bank statement, which appears on this page, and of which they have a good right to be.

THIS office was honored Saturday afternoon by a delightful call from the following handsome belles and beaux: Miss Mattie Bosley, Eugenia Pulliam and Elma and Katie Baker and Messrs. W. G. Fox, F. K. Tribble, Isaac and Warren Shelby.

MR. CLARENCE E. WOODS, of the Richmond Register, one of the brightest writers as well as the cleverest gentlemen connected with the Kentucky press, made us a pleasant call en route to Lebanon to attend a meeting of the Enterprise stockholders, in which he still retains a number of shares.

OUR clever agent, Mr. J. A. Carpenter, is anticipating an extended trip. The railway agents at the U. S., Canada and Mexico meet in convention at Denver, Col., on the 20th and besides taking that in, he will likely take a Southern tour and probably sail on the peaceful Pacific.

MISS MARGUERITE INGLES, of Paris, writes that the item which recently appeared in this paper, saying that she was in New York preparing to star in a dramatic company, is erroneous. She will go East shortly to pursue her studies of elocution, in which she is already very proficient.

MISS BETTIE PARSONS has returned from a very pleasant visit to friends in Lebanon. While there she was so importuned to teach another session in the female college by the patrons of the school there that she was forced to do so, notwithstanding she had decided to quit teaching for the present.

I WANT 25 good carpenters at once to whom I will pay good wages. Address R. C. Bradley, Harrodsburg.

MR. J. S. OWSLEY, SR., was breaking a young mare a few days ago, when the animal became unmanageable and ran into a fence, sustaining injuries from which she died.

THERE will be six sweet girl graduates this year, if they stand their examinations, which they no doubt will. They are Misses Clara Lackey, Annie Green, Mamie Lynn, Mattie Rochester, Janie Feland and Mary Vandy.

MORE FROST.—A Harrison county man, who is said to have predicted the late frosts, says we will have others on the 19th and 24th. He says it thundered on those days in April and he never has known it to fail for frosts to come on the corresponding days in May.

THE Boyle republicans sent their delegates unopposed, except to cast the vote of the county for Hon. John W. Yerkes for member of the State Central Committee from this district. The position is now held by Gen. W. J. Landrum, who is chairman of the committee.

FROM the Insurance Herald, published at Louisville, we find that Stanford paid out $5,491 for fire insurance last year and got back on losses $809; Danville paid $19,408 and received $11,981; Harrodsburg paid $20,909 and drew out $81,127; Lancaster $10,037 and received $9,888.

WE are in receipt of a readable letter from Palestine, Texas, with no signature save "Jim Sulphur," which is evidently a nom de plume. As all newspapers have an invariable rule to publish no contribution without the name of the writer, Mr. Sulphur's is consequently barred.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE has had an assistant professor since last Sunday, the first born of Prof. S. J. Pulliam and wife, who is at the home of her father, Col. M. Mullins.—Falmouth Democrat.

IF it is a boy, we suggest that his father's name, Stonewall Jackson, would be a mighty good one to perpetuate.

SURPRISE PARTIES.—Misses Annie Alcorn and Mamie Lynn were each "surprised" Friday night by the gathering at their homes of a merry crowd of young people. Fortunately for the surprisers, the "surprised" had an inkling of their coming and a delightful repast was spread at each of the hospitable homes.

THE L. & N. will sell excursion tickets to Louisville at one fare for the round-trip on the following dates: May 11 to 15, good returning May 19; 16 to 18, good till 24, on account of the Democratic Convention, 13th, Jockey Club Races, 13th to 22, Music Festival, 13th to 16th, Elks' Reunion, 17th to 19th. For particulars call on or address any L. & N. agent, or W. W. Penn, T. P. A., Junction City.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of the Laurel circuit court sentencing Wils Jennings to the penitentiary for life for the murder of John Bailey in Harlan. Jennings has been in jail here ever since his sentence, awaiting the result of the appeal. Besides murdering Bailey, numerous other murders are charged to him, though he does not look at all like a murderer or a desperado.

BOYLE ITEMS.—Mrs. Fannie Rains, a sister of W. L. Tarkington, was terribly burned by falling headlong into the fire, while dozing.—Mad dogs are playing havoc in the Atoka neighborhood. One bit a $1,000 jennet belonging to W. A. Caldwell and she will die. It also bit a little son of Joe VanArsdale and one of Wm. Leathers, both of whom were taken to Junction City, where a madstone was applied. The dog also bit four dogs, four cows and three steers, all of which had to be killed.

Down in Bowling Green the grocers have formed a protective association, elected officers and adopted a constitution, the leading feature of which is, that no member of the association will sell goods to anyone found on the black list. It will be the duty of each member to report promptly any person who fails to pay his account in a reasonable time and after he has been put on the black list, none of them can sell him except for cash. The Stanford merchants might make a note of this and take steps for their mutual benefit.

EVERY change that the L. & N. makes in its schedule on this division seems to be for the worse, so far at least as our people are concerned. The new schedule, which went into effect Sunday, makes the south-bound express, No. 25, pass here at 1:13 A. M., instead of 11:59 P. M., and the north-bound, No. 26, at 2:47 A. M., instead of 3:11. These trains were very popular for our people to go to Louisville on, as a man could get a fair night's sleep, either before starting or on returning, but the present arrangement knocks nearly all of the sleep out of both nights.

NEW lot of dressed and undressed kid gloves in tans, grays and black. Severance & Son.

PRIVATE SALE.—J. T. Embury sold to J. H. Collier five shares First National Bank stock at $113.

DR. W. I. LETCHER's 16 shares of stock in the First National Bank of Stanford sold at auction yesterday as follows: R. L. Porter five at $113.25, W. M. Lackey five of same price and J. H. Collier six at $113.

If you want the best binder on the market buy the Deering. For sale by A. T. Nunneley, who also keeps a full line of repairs and the best twine made, all at prices and terms to suit the times. Give him a call.

ALL the bar room licenses at Junction City have expired, except G. D. McCollum's, and his will be out July 1. After that the Boyle county people will have to depend on the blind tigers and drug stores for their intoxicating beverages.

OUR colored statesman, George W. Gentry, came over from his distillery to take a hand in the republican convention yesterday. He made a game fight for Gen. W. J. Landrum, for district committeeman, but he was downed by the Bradleyites by an overwhelming majority. See proceedings elsewhere in this issue.

THERE is a big hitch in the water words construction, but we are informed by the moneyed men of the concern that they intend to see that they are built according to agreement. Unfortunately for the town the company as a whole did not sign the contract and it may be that it will be left in a hole. But of this more anon.

AFTER three heavy frosts it, turned warm Friday and ever since has been as hot as August and dustier. The farmers complain greatly of the severe drouth, which has practically stopped their operations. It was getting cloudy yesterday and notwithstanding the prediction of the signal service for frost and clearing weather, rain seemed to be in sight.

FROM reports gathered from farmers all over the county yesterday, we learn that the wheat was damaged by the frost but little if any. As to fruit of all kinds the general estimate is that fully 75 per cent. is killed. In some localities all is gone, while in others the damage was slight. In the northern part of the State the damage was even greater and reports from the West and North tell of immense and irreparable damage to wheat and fruits.

IN the county court yesterday the will of Col. T. W. Miller was admitted to probate. It is in his own handwriting and bequeaths everything to his wife to dispose of by will or otherwise as she may deem proper. Mrs. Miller and Hon. J. S. Owsley are appointed executors without security. The will of A. G. Cowan was also probated. It gives all of his estate, some $3,000, to the children of his sister, Mrs. J. N. Menefee, and makes Mr. Menefee executor. Liquor license were granted Mrs. Mary C. Vanderpool, at Crab Orchard, and George S. Carpenter, Stanford.

THE prohibitionists held a mass meeting yesterday to send delegates to the convention, which meets in Louisville on the 19th, to nominate candidates for State offices. Chairman A. W. Carpenter presided and Peter Carter acted as secretary. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery addressed the meeting and the following list of delegates were appointed: A. W. Carpenter, J. Q. Montgomery, J. T. Hackley, Dr. Traylor, A. H. Bastin, J. H. Collier, Mack Holmes, J. T. O'Hair, W. G. Hubble, M. N. Early, Lewis Gooch and John Holmes. No instructions were given, but the delegates are to vote as a unit. Chairman Carpenter tells us that he does not think any nominations will be made for county offices.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—For Sale.—Three red bull calves. R. B. & E. P. Woods.

—A. W. Carpenter sold to George Alford a gelding for $150.

—D. N. Prewitt sold to Spence Hubble a yearling mule for $150.

—Joseph Phelps sold to Carman Bros., of Casey, a yoke of oxen at $110.

—F. M. Howard, of Bee Lick, bought of East End parties 16 head of mountain cattle at 2 1/2 cts.

—Johnson, of Boyle, bought of West End parties a bunch of No. 1 butcher cattle at 3 1/2 cts.

—John A. Judy sold to Jas. E. Clay, of Bourbon, a lot of 120 good yearling cattle at $30.—Winchester Democrat.

—The tobacco house of F. N. Dohrman & Sons, in Covington, was burned. Loss of Building and contents $20,000.

—C. H. Nelson talks about trotting his expelled stallion, Nelson 2101, against any horse alive for $20,000 a side.

—H. C. Ezell, of Wilkerson, Tenn., an importer, sold 25 jacks at $500 to $1,500, and a number of jennets at $200 to $500.

—The life interest of S. E. Owsley in the old Dr. Owsley farm of 220 acres, was bought at commissioner's sale yesterday by E. P. Owsley for $3,000.

—E. B. Beazley has lost 20 fine hogs with cholera and Robert McAlister suffered even worse. Dogs played havoc with S. M. Owens' sheep a few nights ago.

—M. F. Elkin & Co., bought of John F. Cash a lot of fat cattle at 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 cents; of B. G. Gover a lot of 130-pound hogs at 3 1/2 cents and of W. M. Lackey a lot of mixed cattle at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents.

—Mr. John McKee, who has a peach orchard of 32,000 trees near Kingsville, says that not much damage is done his fruit and that excepting those trees that are in the low grounds and on branches, the yield promises to be even better than heretofore.

—Yesterday was a dull day in every particular. The machine men from the various counties surrounding were present and talked loud and long but with little or no effect. Some 150 cattle were on the market, but only about 50 changed hands. Heifers sold at 3 cents; butcher cattle 3 to 3 1/2; feeders 2 1/2. A couple of plug horses sold for $35 and $42.50. A lot of Texas yearling mules were taken down at $20. Crowd pretty fair.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Quarterly meeting will begin at McKendree church Saturday next and last over Sunday.

—A Christian Endeavor Society was organized at Lancaster, and Miss Mary Robinson was elected president; Miss Sallie Elkin secretary and Miss Kate Kincaid treasurer.

—At the 88th anniversary of the British and Foreign Bible Society it was shown that since its foundation the society had published and distributed 120,000,000 Bibles in 300 languages.

—The Southern Baptist Convention at Birmingham is unusually largely attended. Saturday an effort was made to raise the debt on the Louisville Seminary, when $26,000 was either put up or pledged.

—Dr. Talmage continues to speak strongly against prosy sermons. His advice to all preachers is to get shaved and to put more ginger into their work, and it's very good advice for all public speakers.

—A remarkable revival is in progress at Cleveland, conducted by Evangelist Mills. Nearly all the business houses and manufactories close for the Wednesday service and over 10,000 persons have signed cards signifying their intention of becoming Christians.

—The new library building of the Southern Baptist Theological School at Louisville was dedicated last week. The building cost $50,000 and is the gift of Mrs. J. Lawrence Smith, daughter of James Guthrie, formerly president of the Louisville and Nashville.

—Elder E. S. Dudley died in Bourbon Saturday. He was born in Fayette county Jan. 23, 1811, and was the son of Gen. James Dudley, a captain in the war of 1812. He was a member of the "Regular Baptist" Church and for 30 years had been pastor of the church at Stony Point.

—Miss Catherine Drexel, who is now a nun in the Mercy Convent, Pittsburg, Pa., is 28 years old and worth $7,000,000 in her own right. After her novitiate, Miss Drexel will become the superior of a new order of nuns, who will work exclusively among the Indians and negroes.

—There was a disgraceful row in the Church of the Ascension, Hamilton, Ont., growing out of the introduction of a surplised choir from Christ Church Cathedral. The anti-ritualists turned off the gas and the organ water, and interrupted services with cat calls and secular songs. The police were called in.

—On our first page will be found the programme of the State Sunday-School Convention to be held here June 23-25. It will be one of the largest gatherings of any kind ever held in Stanford as over 400 delegates are expected. Our people without regard to denomination doubtless will take pleasure in assisting to entertain them.

—Rev. J. M. Evans, in a four months' evangel in West Virginia, took 193 new members into the Presbyterian Church and organized two churches with 60 members each. Besides this he organized one Sunday-school, four prayer-meetings, raised money to erect one church building and to pay off a debt of $1,900 on another.

—The annual report made to the 29th international convention at Kansas City, of the Young Men's Christian Association, shows that the order owns real estate to the value of $12,500,000; its indebtedness is but $2,500,000; has in its pay 1,083 officers of the association; has 779 reading rooms and 649 libraries, containing in the aggregate 500,000 volumes. The total membership is reported at 235,000.

—Rev. Sam Small has "resigned" the presidency of the Utah University of the Methodist Church, at Ogden; or perhaps it would be better to say the director, so he got mad and quit. They claimed that he was extravagant in the use of the University's money and did not hesitate to make himself a reveler in the luxuries of life at the expense of the funds.

—A reporter in his rounds Sunday night noticed that three-fourths of the congregations of our churches were ladies. If it was not for the women of this country, church worship would be slimly attended. As a general thing the wife is at church praying, while the husband is standing on the street corners talking politics, or betting on the next horse race. God bless the women.

—The meeting of the Christian churches at McCormacks Saturday was one of the most successful and pleasant meetings ever held in the county. A large attendance, a superb dinner, a perfect May day, and Christian love and enthusiasm made it an occasion long to be remembered. Money was pledged by the churches represented to employ an evangelist for the county, and the committee selected Elder J. W. Zachary, a young man full of ability and worth. The outlook for successful missionary work in the county was never more hopeful. Elder Livingston, the former evangelist, declined to serve longer. His labors as evangelist were highly appreciated by the brethren.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank, through the dear INTERIOR, our many warm friends of Stanford for the kind reception of my dear husband, who, on account of sickness, I was not able to follow to his last resting place. I hope soon to join them in my dear home to remain.

Mrs. KATE DUDDERAR.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The National Bank and C. C. Stormes' store have received fresh boats of paint.

—Mrs. E. W. Lillard and Misses Altie and Bessie Marksbury, united with the Baptist church at the regular service Sunday morning.

—Mrs. Colby Jenkins died at her home in Lower Garrard Saturday evening. Funeral services were held at the Fork church Monday, after which the remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery.

—An unusual amount of interest is being taken in the meeting at the Christian church. Services are held every morning at 10:30 and in the evening at 8 o'clock. Elder Tharp is a splendid orator and commands the entire attention of the large audiences that greet him. Up to and including Sunday night 30 additions had been made to the church. The meeting will continue this week and probably longer.

—J. T. Eason has returned to Cincinnati, after a short visit to his parents. Howard Marrs has gone to Shelbyville. Mrs. Wm. Shugars is very ill from a stroke of paralysis. Dr. Steele Bailey, of Stanford, was here last week mingling with his many old Lancaster friends. L. D. Hollingsworth is in Louisville on business. Col. Joe Weisiger and family have returned from Orlando, Fla., where they spent the winter. We are glad to state that Mrs. Weisiger's health is greatly improved. J. T. Palmer has been in Lancaster for several days.

COVINGTON STOCK YARDS.

Great Reduction in Yardage.

COVINGTON, KY., May 10, 1891.—Believing in the motto "Live and let live," we have cut the yardage on live stock down to one-half the previous charges, viz: Cattle 12½ cents instead of 25; hogs 3 cents instead of 6; sheep 2½ cents instead of 5. This reduction will be in force on and after the above date.

Our yards have undergone thorough repair and are second to none in the country for convenience and all desirable accommodations and we guarantee satisfaction to all patrons old and new. Respectfully,

W. A. PETER, Supt.

Measuring a Billion Dollars.

The New York World estimates that the billion-dollar Congress spent more money than all the workers in the "protected" industries can earn in three years. It certainly spent more money than would have paid off the entire national debt. It spent as much money as the entire wheat crop of the country for three years would amount to. If the money were in $1 bills and the bills placed end to end, they would reach almost half way from the earth to the moon. They would encircle the globe four times at the equator. If an expert cashier could count 100 of these bills a minute, and work ten hours a day without a pause, and 365 days a year, it would take him nearly 20 years to count the whole. If the whole sum were in gold and loaded in freight cars, filling each car to its full capacity of 40,000 pounds, it would require a train of 100 cars to transport the gold from place to place. In silver about 1,500 freight cars would be required. From estimates like these the people can get some faint and inadequate notion of the inconceivable amount of money the billion-dollar Congress spent.—Boston Globe.

There has been quarried in Maine a solid shaft of granite that will be much larger than the obelisk in Central Park and will be the largest monolith in the world. It is without a crack or flaw and is 115 feet long and 10 feet square at the base. The largest Egyptian obelisk, which is now at Rome, is 105 feet high, so that the Maine stone exceeds it by 10 feet. It is computed to weigh not far from 850 tons.

A train starts daily at the same moment from San Francisco to New York, and one daily from New York to San Francisco, the journey lasting seven days. How many trains will a passenger meet in journeying on one from San Francisco to New York? Counting the one arriving as he leaves and the one leaving as he arrives, he will meet eight. It would require ten trains for such service.

It is shown that the catch of the season just ending in Baltimore amounted to over 12,000,000 culled oysters. The new culling law, which went into force this season, has furnished great protection, and it is estimated that 2,000,000 of uncultured oysters have thus been saved on the rocks. This insures a catch next season of at least 16,000,000 bushels.

A girl in Kentucky has recovered $500 damages from a steamboat company for naming a boat after her without asking her permission, and they must re-name the boat. She took offense at a marine item stating that "Kittie Marshall took the lower chute and ran her nose into a plantation."—Detroit Free Press.

Mrs. Homily (after church)—How did you come to preach on backsliding, dear? You said at breakfast that you were going to preach your sermon on profanity.

The Rev. Dr. Homily—I had intended to, my dear, but my collar-button got down my back when I was dressing for church.—Puck.

GIRLS OF THE HARVARD ANNEX.

They Enjoy a Delightful Visit from Oliver Wendell Holmes.

If people know you come here to college, the question you get tired of answering is, "Oh, so you go to Harvard, don't you?" If you don't feel strong enough to explain you say "Yes," but really that isn't true at all. The Annex has nothing to do with the college in any system of coeducation, and we do have just the same professors and have to pass the same examinations. A man gives a lecture to the boys, and then comes over and gives the same one to us.

Even the "Harvard Annex" is not our real name. The story goes that twelve years ago, when the society was started, there was only one girl here, and as the fellows never saw her they called her "an x, the missing quantity." However true this may be, the "Annex" we remain, and, indeed, how could you talk about "The Society for the Collegiate Instruction of Women?" We haven't any dormitories, but recite in the old Fay house, which has just been beautifully made over for us, and here luncheon is served for those who want it.

Most of the 170 girls live in Boston and vicinity. There are only three or four New Yorkers, and whenever these chance to meet they always seem perfectly delighted.

We really have very good times here. You see there are no rules and regulations to speak of. The only one that occurs to me is a notice posted up on the bulletin board requesting us not to use the tables as chairs. It's a great temptation, but of course not exactly dignified.

A few weeks ago the English club invited us all to a tea to meet Oliver Wendell Holmes. It was very warm and there was quite a crush, and you'd think the dear old man would have been tired shaking hands with so many, but he said he enjoyed it, and was persuaded to read us the "Chambered Nautilus and Dorothy."

When he went we escorted him to the door, and one of the girls gave him a beautiful bunch of pink roses. Then he drove off, bowing and smiling, and we waved our handkerchiefs to him until he was out of sight.

We feel quite elated at the honor, for they say Dr. Holmes declined to meet the Harvard English club. At all events we had him, and they didn't, and this is indeed a triumph for the Annex.—Cor. New York World.

Go Away on a Visit.

After one has been away from home for a time how glorious a thing it always is to get back! How good everybody is to you, and how at the supper table they pass the biggest doughnuts and lay the juicy bits of tenderloin (figuratively speaking) at your feet! Wouldn't it be nice if we always kept on such good terms in the home life? No cross words, no biting sarcasm, no disobligning ways! Half the marriages that turn out so disastrously to peace and concord would not prove such dismal failures, perhaps, if restless husbands and wives would agree to live apart once in a while, and resume a new order of things with fresh remonins. Take the best book that ever was written. One tires of reading that and nothing else. You can lay aside Shakespeare even for Bill Nye and find refreshment in the change.

One may be very fond of well made salad, but heaven itself has no balm for the indigestion induced by an everlasting oil and mustard diet. And so a man may be everything that is glorious as a husband, and a woman be everything that is alluring as a comrade, but forty years' steady and unbroken companionship becomes an irksome irritant rather than a balm of Gilead and a crown of joy. Try it if the atmosphere of home gets dull and sultry. Run away from each other for a while and see if the novelty of renitment doesn't freshen up life. There is nothing like familiarity to breed contempt, and nothing like change to keep the blood young and the pulses warm.—Chicago Herald.

George Eliot's Second Marriage.

The second marriage of George Eliot has always been the great mystery of her strange career. She was supposed to be so absolutely devoted to Lewes that their friends could not conceal their amazement when her second marriage took place less than eighteen months after his death. Circumstances came to the knowledge of George Eliot a few weeks after the death of Lewes which froze up her enthusiasm for his memory. If Browning left any journals behind him a revelation on this subject will probably be found in them, as he was one of the very few persons who were acquainted with the discovery which changed George Eliot's feeling toward Lewes.

There are very few people still living who are qualified by personal knowledge to write about the early connection between George Henry Lewes and George Eliot, and hitherto this gifted pair have been invariably the object of excessive and discriminating panegyric. If Mrs. Lynn-Linton could only be induced to give the world her recollections and impressions respecting them I am sure she would produce a most lively and entertaining account, which would certainly excite considerable controversy.—London Letter.

Conciliating the Late Lamented.

There is a widow in town who is thinking seriously of marrying again, but she is so afraid her first husband will be offended that she visits his grave and prays to him to forgive her. His grave has been better attended to the last six months than ever before. She has an idea that this attention will conciliate him.—Atchison Globe.

A number of Jeffersonville, Ind., colored boys, none of them over twelve years old, stole a locomotive from the railroad yards of that town and offered to sell it to a junk dealer for old metal.

It is said that the blackest man in Glynn county, Ga., is named White, the whitest man is named Brown, the tallest man is named Lowe, and the largest man Small.

Personally Conducted.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, through its personally conducted tourist system, presents four tours for the season of 1891, by special vestibule train with dining and observation cars attached, embracing White Sulphur Springs, Natural Bridge, Luray Caverns, Richmond I and Old Point Comfort on the sea. Each party limited to 100 persons. Tickets cover all necessary expenses. Daylight runs through the magnificent scenery of the Virginias. Nights spent at famous mountain resorts. Every detail looked after by W. H. Greger, General Traveling Agent, who will conduct these tours for the company. The luxury of sight-seeing without one disturbing element. For rates, dates, etc., address H. W. Fuller, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Hostetter McGinnis—How is it, Mr. Schaumburg, that you can make money when you sell your goods at cost? Mose Schaumburg—Because I puy my goods below cost.—Texas Siftings.
